EGGOL SHAMPOO BETTER THAN SOAP

Thousands of people have learned the hard way that ordinary soap does not thoroughly cleanse the hair and scalp.
There is an oily secretion around roots of the hair and clinging close to the scalp that cannot be washed away, but must be dissolved with a proper shampoo like Eggol. With this crust is the harboring place for dirt. The head should therefore be thoroughly cleaned every week or ten days. If the hair and scalp are so remain healthy and free from dandruff.
Eggol is a shampoo preparation that has been sold for many years by druggists everywhere. A twenty-five cent package will answer for dozen shampoos, and you will surely see the feeling of absolute cleanliness that it will leave.

few applications of Sage Tea and Salicylic Acid, back the hair, color, gloss and youthfulness.

Common garden sage brewed into a tea, with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair carefully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Salicylic Acid, at home, is a true discovery. An easier way to get a little of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the advice we have approved by the acquisition of other inventions.

Dark, wavy, gray, faded hair is not, we all desire to retain our natural appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound you can tell, because it does it so surely, so evenly. You just dampen sponge or soft brush with it and run this through your hair, taking small strands at a time by moving all gray hairs have disappeared and after another application or two, your hair becomes luxuriantly dark, wavy, soft and luxuriant. This preparation is a delightful hair restorer and is not irritating. It cures, mitigates or prevention of dandruff.—Adv.

EGGOL SHAMPOO
BETTER THAN SOAP

Thousands of people have learned that the best way to wash the hair every week that ordinary soap does not thoroughly cleanse the hair and scalp.

There is an oily secretion around the roots of the hair and clinging close to the scalp that cannot be washed away, but must be dissolved with a proper shampoo like eggol. This thin crust is the hindering factor in hair growth.

The head should therefore be thoroughly cleaned every week or ten days, if the hair and scalp are to remain healthy and free from dust and dandruff.

Eggol is a shampoo preparation that has been sold for many years by druggists everywhere. A twenty-five cent package will answer for dozen shampoos, and you will surely have the feeling of absolute cleanliness that it will leave.

Try this wonderful head wash—you will never find a better, at any price.—Adv.
